Presider — The Rev. E. Edward Shiley
Preacher — The Rev. Emily Zimbrick-Rogers
Music Director/Organist — Dr. Clair Rozier
Associate Director/Organist — Dr. Elaine Sonnenberg Whitelock

We welcome you to the worship of God this morning!

In order to continue to help keep yourself and others safe throughout this pandemic, we require that everyone wear a mask at all times.

During communion you will be invited forward to receive the bread. Please keep your mask on as you come up. After you receive the bread, we ask that you turn away from the Presider to eat the bread, readjust your mask, and then cleanse your hands before returning to the pew. If you need gluten free bread, please let the clergy know.

The First Reading

Job 23:1-9, 16-17

Job said:

"Today also my complaint is bitter;
his hand is heavy despite my groaning.
Oh, that I knew where I might find him,
that I might come even to his dwelling!
I would lay my case before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.
I would learn what he would answer me,
and understand what he would say to me.
Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No; but he would give heed to me.
There an upright person could reason with him,
and I should be acquitted forever by my judge.
"If I go forward, he is not there;
or backward, I cannot perceive him;
on the left he hides, and I cannot behold him;
I turn to the right, but I cannot see him.
God has made my heart faint;
the Almighty has terrified me;
If only I could vanish in darkness,
and thick darkness would cover my face!"

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 22:1-15

Read in unison.

- 1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
and are so far from my cry
and from the words of my distress?
- 2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer;
by night as well, but I find no rest.
- 3 Yet you are the Holy One,
enthroned upon the praises of Israel.
- 4 Our forefathers put their trust in you;
they trusted, and you delivered them.

- 5 They cried out to you and were delivered;
they trusted in you and were not put to shame.
- 6 But as for me, I am a worm and no man,
scorned by all and despised by the people.
- 7 All who see me laugh me to scorn;
they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,
- 8 "He trusted in the LORD; let him deliver him;
let him rescue him, if he delights in him."
- 9 Yet you are he who took me out of the womb,
and kept me safe upon my mother's breast.
- 10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born;
you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.
- 11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near,
and there is none to help.
- 12 Many young bulls encircle me;
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.
- 13 They open wide their jaws at me,
like a ravening and a roaring lion.
- 14 I am poured out like water;
all my bones are out of joint;
my heart within my breast is melting wax.
- 15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth;
and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.

The Second Reading

Hebrews 4:12-16

The word of God is living and active, sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing until it divides soul from spirit, joints from marrow; it is able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart. And before him no creature is hidden, but all are naked and laid bare to the eyes of the one to whom we must render an account. Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

The Gospel

Mark 10:17-31

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: ‘You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honor your father and mother.’” He said to him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.” Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!” And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, “Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” They were greatly astounded and said to one another, “Then who can be saved?” Jesus looked at them and said, “For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.” Peter began to say to him, “Look, we have left everything and followed you.” Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.”

The Nicene Creed Read in unison.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers of the People

Presider Let us pray for the Church, our nation, and for the world, kneeling, as you are able.

Lord, grant that all who confess your Name may be united in your truth, live together in your love, and reveal your glory in the world. We pray for our church and its leaders: for Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Daniel, our Bishop; Frank, our Rector; and all clergy, vestry, and laity of St. David's Church. We pray also for our local partners in ministry in Ardmore, Chester, Norristown, Philadelphia, and Wayne; and for our international partners in ministry in Cuba, Guatemala, and Uganda.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Lord, guide the people of this land, and of all the nations, in the ways of justice and peace; that we may honor one another and serve the common good. We pray for Joe, our president; Tom, our governor; and for all elected officials everywhere that they act justly and with kindness in honor of those whom they serve.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Lord, we offer our prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, and the oppressed. We pray for all who seek God in Jesus Christ and wish to have a deeper knowledge of him. Comfort and heal all those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit; give them courage and hope in their troubles, and bring them the joy of your salvation, remembering especially, Ann, Barbara, Bill, Bonnie, Bridget, Carol, Colby, Danny, Elissa, Fred, Gail, Ginia, Jason, Jay, Jeff, Jennifer, Jim, Joe, John, Karen, Laura, Linda, Luca, Lydia, Mark, Maureen, Matt, Melissa, Orvie, Pamela, Pat, Patrick, Ray III, Roy, Ryan, Sandy, Scarlett, Susan, and Tripp.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Lord, we pray for people all over our country and world who are suffering from the effects of floods, winds, and fire. Give us all a reverence for the earth as your own creation, that we may use its resources rightly in the service of others and to your honor and glory. We pray also for those affected by the Covid-19 pandemic and those who grieve for the way their lives have changed as a result of it. We pray also for those who are displaced from their homes due to terror in their land. Instill in us a deep compassion for them and a will to help them. We pray for all who support our common life and for those who serve as first responders and those serving in the armed forces.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Lord, we pray for those who are celebrating a birthday or an anniversary this week. We pray also for those who have died this week, and those for whom flowers have been given today. May they know the glory of eternal life and share with all your saints in your eternal kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Lord, we pray for all students, school staff and teachers, especially at St. David's Episcopal Day School, and for our confirmands and their mentors.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Lord, bless abundantly all those gathered here today, those whose lives are closely linked with ours, and grant that we may serve Christ in them, and love one another as he loves us.

Lord, in your mercy
Hear our prayer.

Confession and Absolution

Presider: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;

that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem

Be Thou My Vision

arr. Alice Parker

*Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart; Naught be all else to me, save that thou art.
Thou my best thought by day or by night, Waking or Sleeping, thy presence my light.
Be thou my wisdom, and thou my true word; I ever with thee and thou with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father, I thy true son; Thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.
Riches I heed not, nor man's empty praise, Thou mine inheritance, now and always;
Thou and thou only, first in my heart, High King of heaven, my treasure thou art.
High King of heaven, my victory won, May I reach heav'n's joys, O bright heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, Still be my vision, O Ruler of all.*

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and every-where to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Please kneel as you are able.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Presider and People say together,

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Seek Ye First

Karen Lafferty

*Hear my words, O gracious Lord, to my thoughts attentive be;
Hear my cry, my King, my God, I will make my prayer to thee.
With the morning light, O Lord, Thou shalt hear my voice arise;
And expectant I will bring prayer as morning sacrifice.
Thou art Holy, O my God, Thou delightest not in sin;
Evil shall not dwell in Thee, nor the proud Thy favor win.*

During the singing of the hymn, students and parents from St. David's Episcopal Day School will enter the chapel.

Post-communion Prayer

Please kneel as you are able.

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

At the end of that Post-Communion Prayer, please stand and join in singing He's Got the Whole World in his Hands:

- 1. He's got the whole world in his hands...
- 2. He's got the sun and the moon...
- 3. He's got everybody here right in his hands...

Please join with the children in praying The St. David's Episcopal Day School Prayer

Loving God, be with us every day as we learn. Teach us to love all people as Jesus loved us. Lead us in learning and in playtime. Thank you God. Amen.

The Blessing

Life is short and we have too little time to gladden the hearts of those who travel the way with us. So, be swift to love and make haste to be kind and may the blessing of God Almighty, Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with you now and remain with you always. Amen.

Welcome & Connect: St. David's 101

Are you a newcomer or visitor? Would you like to become a member of St. David's or be received or confirmed into the Episcopal Church? Do you have questions about the Christian faith or Episcopal beliefs? St. David's is offering a 5-week class on the Basics of Christian Faith for anyone who is interested. This class will provide both teaching and discussion in a small group setting, led by Rector Frank Allen and Associate Rector Emily Zimbrick-Rogers.

Worship: 11:30am Service Returns

Please join us on Sunday, October 10 for the return of our 11:30am worship in the Church.

Adult Forum: Discovering our Faith

Adult Forum offers engaging dialogue and interactive teaching on Why Faith Matters today. All adults, both experienced Christians and newcomers, are welcome. Offered in-person (Chapel) and live-streamed immediately following the 9:15am service. Those watching from home can submit questions live to formationquestions@stdavidschurch.org. This weeks topic: How does the Holy Spirit move today? with The Rev. Emily Zimbrick-Rogers

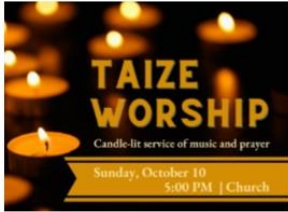

Family Worship Service

A new worship service for families with children, first grade and younger, has begun in St. David's Hall. The service includes storytelling, prayers, and Holy Eucharist in a "come as you are" atmosphere that is meaningful for both adults and children. For more information, please contact egiven@stdavidschurch.org.

Centering Prayer

Centering Prayer on Wednesdays at 8:15 am will be held hybrid. People can come in person to the Harrison Room or log on to Zoom. Please contact Buff Barnes at bbarnes@stdaidschurch.org with any questions.

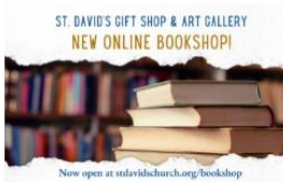

Taizé Worship

Join us for Taizé Worship on Sunday, October 10th at 5:00pm in the Church. Taizé is a simple, meditative form of worship, calling us to dwell deeply on Christ's presence around and within us. Mantra songs (like "Jesus, Remember Me"), prayerful silence, and short readings guide the focus of the prayer in a candle-lit environment. Please contact Director of Music Dr. Clair Rozier at crozier@stdaidschurch.org for more information.

Assistance for Afghan Refugees

Join with our fellow Episcopalians across the Diocese of Pennsylvania to provide needed items to Afghan refugees coming through Fort Dix. For a list of items and more information visit <https://www.diopa.org/news/help-for-afghanistan>. Bring items to St. David's by Thursday, October 14.

The Gift Shop: New Online Store

The Gift Shop now offers a convenient way for you to purchase books online and support International Outreach through a new Bookshop.org shopping page. The page earns commissions on all sales which are donated to International Outreach. Every time you make a purchase, you are supporting vital mission work in Uganda, Guatemala, and Cuba. Be sure to visit stdaidschurch.org/bookshop to shop!

Churchyard Neighbors

For those who have experienced the death of a spouse, you are invited to a time of conversation and sharing on Sunday, October 10 at 11am in the Churchyard (the St. David's cemetery). Join the "Churchyard Neighbors" and bring a folding chair and a beverage if you wish. Our meeting place will be the rear driveway of the cemetery, adjacent to the lawn. In the event of rain, the group will meet in St. David's Hall. Questions? Contact icolton@stdaidschurch.org

Episcopal Schools Sunday

October 3-10 is National Episcopal Schools Week! Our St. David's Episcopal Day School students and their families will be invited to join us at the 9:45 am Family Worship, ending in time to come by the end of the 9:15 am service to recite the school prayer. Please look for and welcome these families!
